

Undergraduate Merit Scholarship 2022-2023 by the National and Kapodistrian University of Athens, Greece

With the aim of attracting competent students, the National and Kapodistrian University of Athens offers one (1) Merit Scholarship of Eur 10,000 to an applicant who wishes to pursue the “BA Program in the Archaeology, History, and Literature of Ancient Greece”, starting in the fall of 2022.

The application start date is July 27, 2022 and the closing date is August 12, 2022 at midnight (Greece local time: UTC/GMT +3 hours); results will be announced by August 29, 2022.

This four-year BA program is taught in English and is devoted to the study of Greek Antiquity. Aimed at international students, it offers a unique opportunity to study the culture of ancient Greece with on-site study of archaeological monuments and sites, such as the Athenian Acropolis, Delphi and Olympia. It can offer students the opportunity to live for a while in the country of origin of values that have greatly influenced Western civilizations today, e.g., Democracy, Philosophy, Art and Science, and get acquainted with its historic monuments and culture, by studying in English, i.e., a language that most already speak. By joining this BA program, students may also choose to learn Modern Greek from specialized teachers, seizing the opportunity to connect with today’s Greece through the study of the past.
